My Dad

I will always remember your charming smile,
your booming voice, your caring heart, and your passion for the Word of God.

You imparted many wonderful things
into my life and ministry.

Our family will always remember you Dad because you were a unique and precious gift to us.

We will miss you, but we celebrate your promotion into the eternal presence of our Lord and Savior.

Obituary

Elder Wilfred Graves, Sr. was born on November 5, 1941 in Reserve, LA to the late Robert Graves, Sr. and Hilda Williams Graves. He grew up in the city of New Orleans, LA.

Elder Graves was ordained in his teens and preached the Gospel for nearly 50 years until failing health forced him to slow down. He was moved by his son in 2015 to Los Angeles, CA, where he lived until our Heavenly Father called him home on July 28, 2020.

He was preceded in death by his former wife Glendolyn Graves, and his brother Ernest Graves. He leaves to celebrate his life: one son, Wilfred (Malaika) Graves, Jr.; three brothers, Robert (Carolyn) Graves, Jr.; Charles Graves; and Leonard (Marilyn) Graves; two sisters, Lillie Mae Brown and Gertrude (Charles) Spooner; a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
